ABOUT

Richelle
Putnam
DARE TO DO.

Richelle Putnam is an award-winning author/songwriter, Mississippi Arts Commission (MAC) Arts Integration Specialist, Mississippi Humanities Speaker, and two-time Mississippi Arts Commission Literary Arts Fellow. She holds an MA in Creative Writing, along with certificates in songwriting and guitar from Berklee College of Music and ukulele from ArtistWorks. Richelle's song recognitions include the Billboard Songwriting Contest, UK Songwriting Contest, Songdoors Songwriting Contest, Mike Pinder's Songwars, and American Songwriter Magazine. Her work explores grief, challenges, victory, and redemption through character-driven narratives reminiscent of the '60s and '70s. A lifelong learner, she dares to dream, discover, and do—at any age.
